

CAROL

Come on Carol, I call let's get the dishes done but she sits there drawing at the kitchen table, a life-like portrait, with one foot dangling, auburn hair hanging over her canvas Let frogs hop around the room or ten foot daisies grow outside the window others can work and slave but let her draw

I'LL TELL YOU MY DREAMS, YOU TELL ME YOURS

Dear Sigmund:

told them i dreamt
about the Eiffel Tower and they said that i was over-sexed so i told them i dreamt about the old locomotive in the park and they said that i was undersexed. So then i told them i dreamt about a fiery, wild horse and they said that i was sexually repressed and i told i dreamt i could fly and they said i was probably promiscuous.

really wonder what they'd say if i told them i dreamt i made love to someone. They'd probably say it means i like peanut butter sandwiches.
